- 10. Conditions for Managing Accounts. Does the applicant provide investment supervisory services, manage investment advisory accounts or hold itself out as providing financial planning or some similarly termed services and impose a minimum dollar value of assets or other conditions for starting or maintaining an account? Yes No

(If yes, describe on Schedule F.)

11. Review of Accounts. If applicant provides investment supervisory services, manages investment advisory accounts, or holds itself out as providing financial planning or some similarly termed services:

- A. Describe below the reviews and reviewers of the accounts. For reviews, include their frequency, different levels, and triggering factors. For reviewers, include the number of reviewers, their titles and functions, instructions they receive from applicant on performing reviews, and number of accounts assigned each.

Reviews: Turner Investment Partners, Inc. reviews all cash and security positions daily, reviews at least weekly for security and sector weightings, and reviews at least monthly for economic and related factors. Triggers for more frequent reviews include account withdrawals or contributions, changes in client objectives and/or economic conditions. Compliance and Client Service Department reviews, comparing account portfolios with stated investment objectives and account restrictions, occur on a regular basis.

Reviewers: 1 Chief Investment Officer, 6 Senior Portfolio Managers/Analysts, 9 Portfolio Managers/Analysts, 5 Security or Quantitative Analysts and multiple client service personnel. Each client account is assigned to a primary and secondary portfolio manager/analyst and a Client Service Director familiar with the client and its investment guidelines for review. Portfolio managers/analysts are responsible for approximately 15 to 20 relationships each. Client Service Directors are each responsible for 40 to 45 client relationships. SMA/wrap program relationships are separately reviewed by a Client Service Director on a program sponsor by sponsor level.

- B. Describe below the nature and frequency of regular reports to clients on their accounts.

Regular reviews are provided to all clients. Most clients will receive written reports on a quarterly basis, and more frequently if requested. These reports typically include a review of client objectives, management style, portfolio holdings, economic factors, account transactions, performance information and income/expenses. Between regular reviews, clients will be contacted concerning any significant developments affecting their portfolios. On certain accounts, including SMA/wrap program accounts, reports on portfolio holdings, transactions and performance are provided by broker-dealers or investment advisers who also service these accounts.
